Dis chapter dedicated to tomfeltonsimp22 who makes the BEST Harry Potter fanfics ever

My talons tapped the cave ground as I walked toward the arguing voices of Qibli and Winter and I sigh will they ever get along? but I know it would just get worse when they find out...

I hesitated but winter walked out and noticed me I gave him a forced smile he just glares and walks back to argue with Qibli and as I walk in Qibli's face lights up "hi moon" he says trying to keep his expression casual, I've let this carry on longer then I should of but what I'm supposed to do? "Are you alright moon?" Qibli says snout creased in worry "I-Im fine" I stammer Winter storms out obviously furious Qibli starts figeting, his sharp eyes darting around the room he takes a deep breathe suddenly really tense "we will always be friends no matter what right?" he blushed eyes on his talons, oh no not now of all times "I I love you Moon" he lifted his eyes to mine fear and questions seemed to cloud them how was I supposed to say this "I-" then I heard something from outside I left the room just to see a flurry of an icewing running away from this horrible mess with Qibli hot on his tail...

I'm new to this pls don't judge how bad it is and short I will make longer and bigger ones in future oh and cliffhanger >:)

blizzard of a feeling: Winter

Try reading salamigod25 fanfics
---------My chest was aching I don't know weather that was from running or what i just witnessed how stupid could I be? I'm an icewing prince an exiled one but one none the less but still it happened I should of seen that this would happen

My talons pushed me out onto a ledge
I pumped myself in the air, winter was on the way a chilly wind blowing the tears away if only it could do that to the blizzard inside as it billowed I pushed it down and just kept flying until it started getting dark and I collapsed wings aching from the full day flight then I heard something moving towards me "stay away from me!" Then a head poked into the corner of my view and of course it happens to be the last dragon I ever want to see again "look, I know you don't want to be near me right now but we need to talk" I snort he's incredible he figures I hate him congratulations "she said no if you were wondering she didn't want to hurt either of us" I snort and sit up "well she did well didn't she? Not only did she hurt me but she hurt you" I say coldly an obvious look of hurt appears on his face "I didn't mean it like that well are we going back now?" He said "no I'm staying right here away from you and her" I say stubbornly falling back in the sand "well I guess I'm staying with you then" he said I didn't complain I just needed sleep and he fell on the sand beside me his wings lightly brushing mine I almost pulled away but then I saw that Qibli had fallen asleep faster then me...

Short chapters seem to be my thing sorry but hey lots of stuff could happen in the next chapter....

butterflys in one's stomach: Kinkajou

[image]

I bounced down the hall smiling and saying hi to everyone along the way hoping Qibli and Winter would be back by now I rushed to class as I entered I saw Moon more worried then ever, no Qibli or winter though I frowned then I noticed tsunami talking to webs "I'm going to the kingdom of the sea for a while although I should be back soon-" I caught his eyes he smiled at me and I couldn't help but smile back even more I bounced over almost knocking over Moons ink and I sat down next to him our wings brushing ever so slightly butterflys in my stomach as we wrote notes to each other I must of snorted to loudly at his joke when webs looked over at us frowning then at the end of the lesson he approached looking sheepishly at me "wou-would yo-you like t-to go hunting with me after class maybe?" He said hopefully I looked at him almost a hundred butterfly's in my stomach "of cause I will Turtle" I said blushing...

Yep short is my thing, hope you enjoy it though! I haven't been able to write that much lately though sorry been very busy whirl of a day: tsunami

[image]

The cool breeze rushed into my face as I started to fly off to the kingdom of the sea my wings pumping me further by just the thought of seeing Riptide again it has been so long since we had seen each other last a vague image of his nervous smile and his laugh imprinted in my mind filling me with an urge so powerful I felt like I could of flown across the world and back from just a simple thought of him and before I know it I'm at the place we agreed on meeting at I landed, but no Riptide where was he? "He should be here soon I can't panic yet" I mumbled to myself then a voice that sounded smoother then the water at the underground lake at the academy, softer then silk, sweeter then sweet, Riptides voice, and as soon as he landed I was embraceing him "I missed you" I said digging my snout into his neck Riptide gently embraced me back "I didn't know you felt that way" as if put out of a waking up I hesitantly pulled away and tackled Riptide into the ocean laughing the whole time but when I finely pinned him down my heartrate picked up thudding loudly then our eyes locked, his talons cleaning the sand off of my face my talons on his chest feeling his heart pick up. In pace but still in rythem to mine we started leaning in to each other ours snouts almost touching "we shouldn't tsuna-" I cut Riptide off by forcing our snouts together my pulse quickening, an unexplainable feeling whirling through me but then Riptide shoved me off him "tsunami we can't do this you have a school to run and I have to run talons of peace we can't do this I'm sorry" I bit back tears feeling like the lowest sea slug in the sea "I should go" Riptide said looking worried but before tsunami could say anything he had taken off and flown away and all I could think was what a whirl of a day

Thx for reading sorry about how much sappy stuff is in it I just felt like REALLY bringing in the romance

wishing on a star: starflight

Nothing but darkness like normal I had read scrolls about lacking certain skills but I never thought it could be THIS bad I can't read at all I have to have someone read for me I can barely get through the crowded corridor alone and it's a pain to always get help from others, then as if summoned by my thoughts fatespeaker knocks on the desk "hey starflight? We need to see you in the history classroom" she said brushing my wing ever so slightly grabbing my arm pulling me hurriedly towards the history classroom me almost tripping over a hundred times "why are we rushing?" Surely whatever was going on can't be that bad, can it? We burst into the classroom "we're here" fatespeaker said panting heavily "good, you can go now fatespeaker" sunny said in a solemn voice that replaced her normal happy up beat voice I frowned what was going on? "Fatespeaker can stay she's part of the staff as well, but seriously what's going on?" I felt Fatespeaker twin tales with me and I reached a talon on her shoulder and smiled at her "we're missing two students, Winter, and Qibli" said clay speaking for the first time since we entered the room I frowned again "any ideas were they could've gone?" I said worried "should we bring in a student to be questioned?" I asked "good idea starflight!" Sunny said in an up beat voice "I'll go get moon, clay can you get turtle and Kinkajou?" "Sure" he said as they left the room, Fatespeaker started talking "did you really mean what you said? About wanting me to stay?" I turned my head in surprise "of coarse I did your my friend" I felt her wings sag as she stepped away "oh ok sure I guess that makes sense" I heard her talons click against the ground as she left the room had I said something? Then flashes of memories flicked before my eyes, Fatespeaker always helping me when possible, how up beat she was when she was near me, how she was inclined to laugh at any joke weather it was bad or not, then it dawned on me, "she she loves me" my wings sag and I drag my tail across the ground a strange throbbing from my chest, when I got back to my room I climbed into my bedding looking out the window and found myself wishing on a star

Hey guys pls give me feedback Im trying really hard on this I know it's not the best but I try really hard ok? 😎😎😎

inferno inside: peril

[image]

My wings grazed the top of the hall roof as I tried to avoid turning other dragons to ash and dust, but there was only one dragon who wouldn't turn into dust and ash, only one dragon that I could never hurt, I could never WANT to hurt...Clay, his sweet smile burnt into my mind like ingraved stone suddenly I smelt burning parchment and looked down to see a scroll burning at my feet a jump back almost falling on another skywing then step forward almost running into an icewing "sorry!" I say but the skywing just hisses and the icewing just glares the rest of the dragons in the hall had cleared out of it I sigh my head hung low and tale dragging on the ground I find myself at clays office I knock and cautiously step in clays head bobs up and his whole posture seems to relax and a smile brightens his face and in that moment I just loose control of my mouth "I hope you know I like you clay, as in really like you" my talons shake as I wait for a response as clay climbs down and walks and walks over to where I was sitting he puts his talon on my shoulder smiling down at me, this was it, he was about to tell me he doesn't like me like me like that he likes me as a friend as he does the other dragonet of destiny "I like you to peril" and that was it no, your just my friend. I leap into his talons hugging him then he pushes me away a shocked look on his face as a miserable tsunami comes storming into the room and she starts yelling at me "what were you just doing to clay?!" I started burning up and I just left the room and went to my bed.

Hmmmmm poor tsunami, poor peril, poor winter and Qibli, poor starflight, poor fatespeaker (thanks for over 100 views!!!)(Will fix everything don't worry!)

burning snout: Qibli

"hey Winter?" I say walking into his room at possibility his head spins and he sighs "yes Qibli?" I cautiously walk into the room my heartrate picking up I frown this has happened everytime I've even gone near him for the past few days but why? He's just my friend, isn't he? Or could I...? No, not now, not here winter pokes me a shiver running down my scales a flutter in my stomach and startling blue eyes to meat mine they lock into mine and mine lock into his and my breath was taken away why had I not seen the true beauty of his eyes before? A slight blush started to appear on his face and I could feel my snout burning up too, then I remembered why I came in here "do you think we should go back to the academy yet?" His face fell into a frown a knot forming in my stomach "who said I was returning?" He scowled, ouch that hurt "look just go back for at least a week please, I feel hurt to you know, you're not the only one who loved moon" his tension slowly dissolved and he collapsed into my arms "fine I'll go back just don't except me to talk to Moon" I hold his snout up and look into those crystal blue eyes "no one excepts you to that was quiet a shock for me too" I find myself leaning towards him and see him doing the same then our snouts pressed into each other's with such a passion we might have been reunited after 2 years away from each other, I felt a the chill of his tail as it intwind with mine his chilly scales against mine I didn't pull back. His chilly talons slid down my neck slowly pushing me up to him like he was ravenous, I wasn't sure about him but I sure was... For him I pulled away panting for breathe "I think Im in love with you Winter" he looked startled then something I've never seen appeared on his face, a smile...

Wow Winter and Qibli you sure r the best wof ship in my opinion

clear to me: turtle

My stomach wouldn't calm down, but to be fair neither would I, I had some how managed to act confident as I talked to Kinkajou and now I was going to be hunting just her and me. I was terrified to be honest, but on the bright side winter and Qibli are back but even they are acting strange, winter isn't jumping down Qibli's face and Qibli's giving winter the look he used to give moon which is very strange "hey" I jump and turn around it's Kinkajou, I smile sheepishly at her splashes of pink rippled through her scales and she blushed. I feel my snout blush as well I brush my wings against her and start to fly "shall we go?" She smiles and nods "yes, and ummm turtle?" She looked incredibly fidgety "yes?" I say frowning I slowly grab her talons and look deep into her large emerald eyes that sparkle with life "I think it's time to tell you that I like you" my heart leaps for joy at this, beautiful, happy Kinkajou likes me, the nervous, fidgety, turtle I smile as the moonlight shimmers against her smooth scales and I find myself leaning in, her mirroring me soon or snouts were touching and my heart was beating in unison to hers our tails twining and our talons intwind I pulled away frowning "what if you stop liki-" she pins me down "no what ifs Turtle, just you and I" then it became clear to me, she likes me just as I like her

Sorry it took so long been very busy lately not to mention co-writing with others, especially salamigod25 her fanfics are incredible

the rip of a heart: riptide

The air under my wings carried me to the one I love but rejected under under complete shock I had to fix what I broke and mend this terrible wrong, but as I got there and walked through the academy I hesitated I would most likely be the last person she wanted to see but yet I had to do this I told myself then out of her office walked non other then clay he looked in surprise at riptide then back at the door and said "she's acting really mean at the moment, I think you're the only person who can help her now I looked at the door and gulped...

I AM SO SORRY I HAVNT UPDATED I LOST MY PHONE FOR A WHILE THERE (thx for over 400 views this has really blown up compared to everything else I have ever made I really appreciate it all)

sorry

I'm giving up on the story sorry guys 😩
